

Meeting #1

As a result of a recent series of conferences, it has been decided to resume the activities of the linguistics group which met in Chicago before the war. The only requisite for membership is interest in linguistics. The names of any persons interested in receiving notices of meetings should be sent to N.A. McQuown, Dept. of Anthropology, Univ. of Chicago, Chicago 37, or D.L. Olmsted, Dept. of Anthropology, Northwestern Univ., Evanston.

In order to form a more perfect union, and to discuss any other matters connected with the resumption of activities, all interested are invited to attend a meeting to be held in Abbott Hall (the downtown Northwestern Campus) Friday evening January 19, 1951. We will gather in the East cafeteria on the second floor for dinner (the cafeteria ceases serving at 6:30 p.m.) and stay on there for the meeting afterward.

Speakers: I. Silva-Huancalida (Northwestern Univ.)

"Some problems in the Phonemics of Chilean Spanish"

W.W. Elmendorf (Univ. of Washington, on year's leave of absence at Northwestern Univ.)

"The Present Status and Future Prospects of Research on the Salishan Languages"

You are invited to communicate this information to other interested persons who did not receive this notice.

W.F. Leopold
N.A. McQuown
Henry Collins
Herbert Paper
D.L. Olmsted

As a result of a recent series of conferences, it has been decided to resume the activities of the linguistics group which met in Chicago before the war. The only requisite for membership is interest in linguistics. The names of any persons interested in receiving notices of meetings should be sent to N.A. McQuown, Dept. of Anthropology, Univ. of Chicago, Chicago 37, or D.L. Olmsted, Dept. of Anthropology, Northwestern Univ., Evanston.

In order to form a more perfect union, and to discuss any other matters connected with the resumption of activities, all interested are invited to attend a meeting to be held in Abbott Hall (the downtown Northwestern Campus) Friday evening January 19, 1951. We will gather in the East cafeteria on the second floor for dinner (the cafeteria ceases serving at 6:30 p.m.) and stay on there for the meeting afterward.

Speakers: I. Silva-Fenzalida (Northwestern Univ.)

"Some problems in the Phonemics of Chilean Spanish"

W.W. Elmendorf (Univ. of Washington, on year's leave of absence at Northwestern Univ.)

"The Present Status and Future Prospects of Research on the Salishan Languages"

You are invited to communicate this information to other interested persons who did not receive this notice.

W.F. Leopold
N.A. McQuown
Henry Collins
Herbert Paper
D.L. Olmsted

Dear Prof. McQuown -
I am glad to hear of this.
But since I will be at Harvard the spring semester for the next three years, I at U. of Chicago only in the summer, I will be able to attend for time. Sincerely
Morris

Meeting #2

The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday February 16, 1951 in Abbott Hall (on the downtown campus of Northwestern University), at 710 North Lake Shore Drive. We will meet in the East Cafeteria on the second floor for dinner (the cafeteria ceases serving at 6:30 p.m.) and remain there for the meeting.

SPEAKERS: Dr. Joseph Wepman (Billings Hospital, University of Chicago)
"Development of Language in the Child"

I. J. Gelb (Oriental Institute, University of Chicago)

"Transliteration and Transcription"

You are invited to communicate this information to other interested persons who did not receive this notice.

N. A. McQuown (University of Chicago)

D. L. Olmsted (Northwestern University)

graphemics

Dante

visibile p a - l e d 2 phonemics

Mar 16

Writing

Language

Meeting #3

The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, March 16, 1951, in Abbott Hall (on the downtown campus of Northwestern University), at 710 North Lake Shore Drive. We will meet in the East Cafeteria on the second floor for dinner (the cafeteria ceases serving at 6:30 p.m.) and remain there for the meeting. After the meeting, we will go to

SPEAKERS: Dr. Hilda B. Fisher (Northwestern University)

"Linguistic Geography Research in English-Speaking Louisiana"

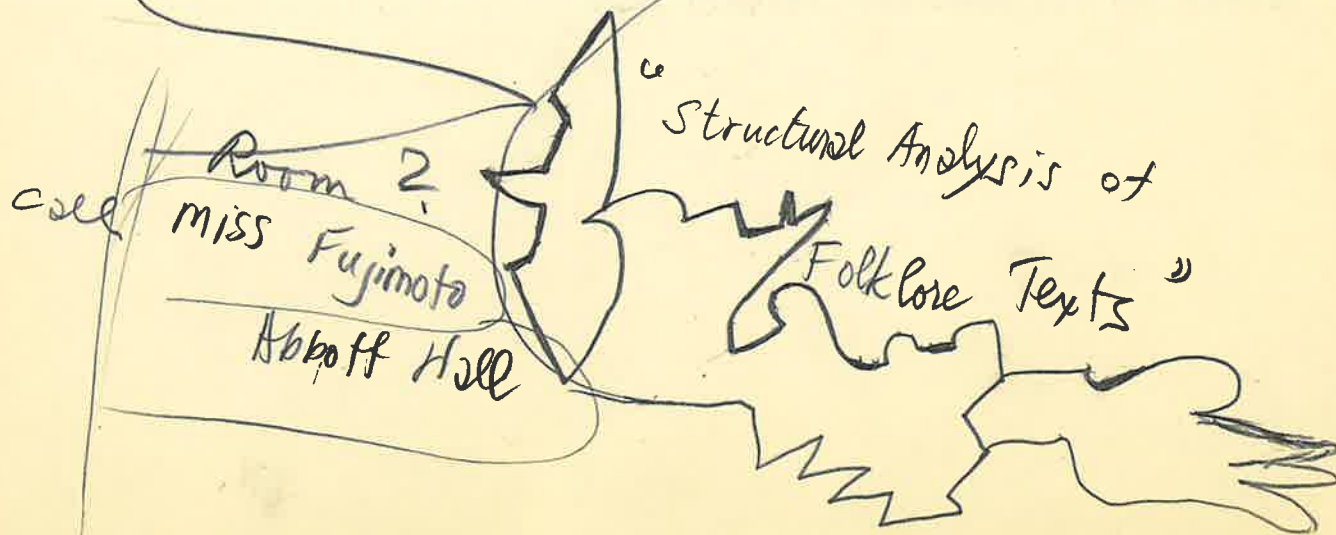

Mr. Gerald Williams (University of Chicago)

"The Influence of Spanish on Tapanua Phonemics"

You are invited to communicate this information to other interested persons who did not receive this notice.

N. A. McQuown (University of Chicago)

D. L. Olmsted (Northwestern University)

Meeting #4

The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, April 20, 1951, in the Ward Building, 301 East Chicago Avenue, Room 846 at 7:15. We will meet in the East Cafeteria on the second floor (Abbott Hall, on the downtown campus of Northwestern University at 710 North Lake Shore Drive) for dinner. The cafeteria ceases serving at 6:30 p.m.

SPEAKERS: Dr. Heinrich G. Kobrak
Professor of Otolaryngology
University of Chicago

"The Function of the Ear" (to be illustrated with slides and a sound movie)

Professor Thomas A. Sebeok
Department of Linguistics
Indiana University

"Structural Analysis of Folklore Texts"

You are invited to communicate this information to other interested persons who did not receive this notice.

N.A. McQuown, University of Chicago
D.L. Olmsted, Northwestern University

Meeting #5

May 7, 1951

The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, May 18, 1951. We will meet in the East Cafeteria on the second floor (Abbott Hall, on the downtown campus of Northwestern University at 710 North Lake Shore Drive) for dinner, and stay on there for the meeting afterward. The cafeteria serves until 6:30 p.m.

SPEAKERS: Mr. Eric Hamp
University of Chicago

on

"Old Irish Conjugating Propositions"

Professor Martin Maloney
Northwestern University

on

"General Semantics and Linguistics"

You are invited to communicate this information to other interested persons who did not receive this notice.

N. A. McQuown, University of Chicago

D. L. Olmsted, Northwestern University

Meeting #6

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, 19th October, The Chicago Linguistic Society will resume its activities, to which all interested are cordially invited. It is proposed again this year to hold meetings on the third Friday of each month.

Place: East Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Ave. subway stop and take Chicago Ave. street-car eastbound as far as it goes. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

The speakers will be:

Meno Spann -- Practical Problems in Writing a College Modern Language Grammar

James H. Sledd -- A Chapter in the History of English Lexicography.

*****

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Henry E. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hamp, University of Chicago

good moderate attendance at this meeting. (ca. 15)

Meeting #7
šə́kə́hgow lingwistik
səsayətiy

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY
PRESENTS

PROF. C. F. VOEGELIN
UNIVERSITY OF INDIANA

"THE FRANZ BOAS MODEL FOR THE AMERICAN INDIAN LANGUAGES."

PALMER HOUSE HOTEL

4th FLOOR ROOM 17

THURS. NOVEMBER 15

9:45 P.M.

not so well attended as it should have been - no doubt owing to lateness of the hour & bad weather
(ca. a dozen)

meeting #8

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, 21st December, The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold its monthly meeting.

Place: East Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Ave. subway stop and take Chicago Ave. street-car eastbound as far as it goes. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

The speakers will be:

Professor Werner F. Leopold, Northwestern University --

Children's Language Learning

Professor George J. Metcalf, University of Chicago --

Diachronic Linguistics in the 16th and 17th Centuries
sive

De Origine Cognationeq: omniū Linguarū quae in Toto
Orbe in usu sunt Commentarius

+++++

+++++

+++

+

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Henry E. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hamp, University of Chicago poorly attended (just over 1/2 doz.) - no doubt a bad date (Xmas holiday) & bad weather (freezing cold).

Meeting #9

ANNIVERSARY MEETING

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, 25th January, The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold its Anniversary meeting. All friends, as well as old regulars, are cordially welcome.

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Ave. subway stop and take Chicago Ave. street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from IC at Randolph St. to any northbound Michigan Ave. bus, get off at Chicago Ave., and go East to Drive by streetcar or foot. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building).

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

The speakers will be:

Professor Gerhardt von Bonin, School of Medicine, University of Illinois --

THE CEREBRAL CORTEX AND LANGUAGE

Professor Norman A. McQuown, University of Chicago --

LANGUAGE AND THOUGHT

*****

*****

***

*

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and a few appropriate toasts to the occasion.

Henry E. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hamp, University of Chicago

bumper attendance - over 30 from N'western, Chgo, & Ill. Universities.

Meeting #10

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, 29th February, The Chicago Linguistic Society will hold another meeting in its series on the relations of linguistics to other disciplines. All friends, as well as old regulars, are cordially welcome.

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Ave. subway stop and take Chicago Ave. street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from IC at Randolph St. to any northbound Michigan Ave. bus, get off at Chicago Ave., and go East to Drive by streetcar or foot. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building).

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

The speakers will be:

Professor Eliseo Vivas, Northwestern University --

THE AESTHETIC AND OTHER MODES OF ACTIVITY

Professor Manley H. Thompson, Jr., University of Chicago --

LOGIC AND LANGUAGE

*****

*****

***

*

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Henry E. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hamp, University of Chicago

25 present

Meeting # 11

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, 28th March, The Chicago Linguistic Society takes pleasure in presenting:

Professor Henry R. Kahane, the University of Illinois

THE PRESENT STAGE OF ROMANCE LINGUISTIC GEOGRAPHY

Open discussion will follow the talk.

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Avenue subway stop and take Chicago Avenue street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from I.C. at Randolph Street to any northbound Michigan Avenue bus, get off at Chicago Avenue, and go East by streetcar or foot to the Drive. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

*****

*****

*****

**

**

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Henry F. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hamp, the University of Chicago

17 present

meeting #12

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, April 25th, The Chicago Linguistic Society takes pleasure in presenting:

Dr. H. Jacob Polotsky, Hebrew University, Jerusalem
THE REVIVAL OF HEBREW
and

Mr. David A. Griffin, University of Chicago
SUBSTRATUM, SUPERSTRATUM, AND DIALECT BORROWING

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Avenue subway stop and take Chicago Avenue street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from I.C. at Randolph Street to any northbound Michigan Avenue bus, get off at Chicago Avenue, and go East by streetcar or foot to the Drive.
Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

*****

*****

**

*

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Henry F. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hemp, the University of Chicago

22 present

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

The Chicago Linguistic Society takes pleasure in announcing for its meeting on Friday, 23rd May, a presentation and discussion on the subject of

LANGUAGE IN THE UNDERGRADUATE CURRICULUM

Presentation will be made by

Mr. Hugh M. Davidson, University of Chicago

Discussion will be led by a panel including Mr. Davidson and Mr. Harrison Hayford, Northwestern University

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Avenue subway stop and take Chicago Avenue street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from I.C. at Randolph Street to any northbound Michigan Avenue bus, get off at Chicago Avenue, and go East by streetcar or foot to the Drive. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 -- for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

*****

****

**

*

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

meeting #13

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

The Chicago Linguistic Society takes pleasure in announcing for its meeting on Friday, 23rd May, a presentation and discussion on the subject of

LANGUAGE IN THE UNDERGRADUATE CURRICULUM

Presentation will be made by

Mr. Hugh M. Davidson, University of Chicago

Discussion will be led by a panel including Mr. Davidson and

Mr. Harrison Hayford, Northwestern University

+ Mr. Delai Brenes, Roosevelt College

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbot Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Avenue subway stop and take Chicago Avenue street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from I.C. at Randolph Street to any northbound Michigan Avenue bus, get off at Chicago Avenue, and go East by streetcar or foot to the Drive. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30 — for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

*****

****

**

*

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Ca. 15 present.

Meeting #14

THE CHICAGO LINGUISTIC SOCIETY

On Friday, 6th June, The Chicago Linguistic Society is privileged to present:

Professor Louis Hjelmslev of Copenhagen

The subject of Professor Hjelmslev's informal discussion will be

Some Basic Assumptions of Glassematic Theory

Place: West Cafeteria of Abbott Hall (downtown Northwestern Campus), 710 North Lake Shore Drive (Get off at Chicago Avenue subway stop and take Chicago Avenue street-car eastbound as far as it goes; or change from I.C. at Randolph Street to any northbound Michigan Avenue bus, get off at Chicago Avenue, and go East by streetcar or foot to the Drive. Cars can be stashed directly west of the building.)

Time: 7:00 P.M., but all except solitary diners will probably enjoy having dinner with their colleagues and friends at the Cafeteria before the meeting. The Cafeteria closes at 6:30--for an unhurried coffee 6:00 is a good hour to arrive.

*****

*****

*****

**

**

Don't rush off after the program. Save some time for a post-colloquial chat and refreshment.

Henry E. Collins, Northwestern University

Eric P. Hamp, the University of Chicago